November 17, 1942.

Mr. Stillson J. Judah, Librarian.
Pacific School of Religion,
Berkeley, Calif.

My dear Mr. Judah:

I am enclosing herewith a list of books which I have gathered from the different professors which I hope you may find of use in compiling your master list for the Japanese library. Last week I sent over two boxes of books by Mr. Pratt, and Mr. McFadden took a box this week which he says maybe delivered several days late. I am afraid this about represents the total books we have available which would be of use. We have a lot we would love to get rid of!

It was a pleasure to visit your library the other day. You owe us a return visit now.

Sincerely,

Clara L Byers

Assistant Librarian
